Patty Vo is considered one of the top female West Coast Swing Dancers on the scene. Currently performing, teaching, and judging on the West Coast Swing Circuit domestically and internationally – she most recently placed third at the 2009 US Open Swing Dance Championship in the Showcase Division, fifth with Michael Kielbasa in the Champion Strictly Swing at the US Open, second at SwingDeigo with her partner Luis Crespo (the first time out in the Showcase Division), and many other top placements in Jack & Jill's and Strictly Swings at other West Coast Swing and Country events throughout the past year. Based in California, she travels internationally, teaching, competing, performing, coaching, and judging at dance events across the globe. Patty's background includes Ballroom, Latin, Swing, Jazz, Hip Hop, Ballet and Country dance. Through her versatility she is able to mesh her unique styles of dance to create a look of her own. Her energy and excitement can also be seen in her teaching, as she always strives for perfection and excellence in both performance and teaching.
